Constituent Group Representation

The District recognizes the following constituent groups as participants in matters related to participatory governance:

Academic Senate

In matters related to participatory governance, the Academic Senate represents academic instructional personnel including credit, non-credit, full and part-time faculty, which includes instructors, counselors, college nurse(s) and librarians. The faculty elects fifteen members to the Academic Senate.

Classified Senate

In matters related to participatory governance, the Classified Senate represents staff other than academic and management.

Student Senate

In matters related to participatory governance, the Student Senate represents all registered credit and non-credit students. The Student Senate consists of the Senate President (elected by the student body) and students appointed by each student association.

Other Components:Board of Trustees

The Marin Community College District Board of Trustees is an elected board which as a unit sets the policy direction that defines the educational, legal, ethical, and prudent standards for college operations, institutional performance, fiscal health, and stability. The Superintendent/President works under the direction of the Board.

President's Cabinet

The Cabinet is advisory to the Superintendent/President in all matters related to college operations, student learning, and the implementation of Board Policies. The Cabinet is composed of administrators who report directly to the Superintendent/President.

Management Council

The Management Council is comprised of appointed administrators to various units, departments or divisions. All Management Council meetings are staff meetings where Board Policies, Administrative Procedures, and operational matters may be discussed. Managers are appointed to college governance committees by the Superintendent/ President.

Participatory Governance System Committees and Councils

Participatory Governance System committees and councils support the Board Policy on District Governance to ensure effective participation in decision-making. PGS committees and councils are composed of faculty, staff, students and administrators. Participatory Governance System operating guidelines and committee charges and responsibilities are outlined in the PGS Plan which is posted on the Participatory Governance Page of the College website.
