References:

Education Code Section 78300;
Title 5 Sections 55002 and 55160

The District shall maintain community service courses which may include coursework in civic, career/technical, literacy, health, family and consumer sciences, and general education, including but not limited to course offerings in the fields of music, drama, art, handicrafts, science, literature, nature study, aquatic sports, and physical activities.

The community service courses shall contribute to the physical, cultural, intellectual, economic, ethical, civic, or professional development of the individuals or groups enrolled in it.

Community service courses shall be open for admission to adults and minors who can benefit from the programs.

No General Fund monies may be expended to establish or maintain community service courses. Students involved in community service courses shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining the courses. Courses may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.

Community Service courses shall not be offered for college credit, but may provide continuing education units.
