AP 4026 PHILOSOPHY AND CRITERIA FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

Reference:

Education Code Section 66015.7

International education encourages programs ~~and a college atmosphere~~ that support intercultural learning, ~~and the exchange of ideas related to diverse~~ about other about other cultures, global issues, and ~~the exchange of a deepening cross-cultural competence understanding between~~ the exchange of Californians and international students and scholars.

For California students and scholars, College of Marin sets forth, as resources permit, to accomplish these goals:

- Develop courses of study in as many fields as possible to increase students' understanding of global issues and the complexity of cultural differences.
- Offer courses in languages other than English to train students to communicate effectively in other cultures and to enhance their understanding of other nations' values.
- ~~Develop courses that offer opportunities for students to develop the ability to critically analyze diverse and multicultural values.~~
- Provide opportunities for students in all majors to participate in study abroad programs to enrich their academic training, perspectives, and personal development.
- Provide opportunities for domestic and international students to interact effectively interact, communicate, and routinely share their views, perceptions, and experiences in educational settings.
- Develop innovative public educational forums and venues to explore global issues and showcase highlight world cultures.

For international students and scholars:

- Encourage the presence of qualified students from other countries with sufficient geographic diversity to inspire an appreciation for differences among cultures and a deeper understanding of the values and perspectives of other people.
- ~~Encourage well rounded and diverse recruitment of international students, scholars, and employees.~~
- Establish admissions requirements for international students (~~see~~ AP 5012 ~~titled~~ International Students)
- Recruit and retain the world's best and brightest faculty to educate California's students as globally competent citizens.
- Facilitate faculty exchange and collaborative partnership programs with institutions in other countries. ~~Develop and strengthen international networks and strategic partnerships to facilitate~~ international exchange and collaborative programs such as faculty and student exchange, visiting scholar programs, research, and resource networking.

- Initiate collaborative research undertakings to address issues of global significance.
- Recruit and retain the world's best and brightest faculty to educate California's students as globally competent citizens.
- Create spaces and programs where international students, staff, and guests feel welcome, such as through Learning Communities, the International Education Office, the International Lounge, and affinity spaces.
