HUM 101 Content Instructor Pool

Applications are being solicited from the College of Marin's full-time and part-time faculty members to fill anticipated openings for the position of Humanities 101 Content Instructor. Positions will be funded by the English Skills Department on ongoing basis and for each Humanities 101 section assignment, the instructor will receive 10 hours of compensation at the current stipend rate.

Description and Rationale for Position:

This position falls under the administrative leadership of the Dean of Educational Success Programs. The function of the Humanities 101 Content Instructor is to prepare and facilitate two lectures for a HUM 101 course. The lectures will align with the course theme and present the theme through the discipline lens of the content instructor.

Scope of Work:

The faculty members will:

- Collaborate with the Dean of Educational Success Programs, the HUM 101 Coordinator, and the HUM 101 Core Instructors to develop their HUM 101 lectures.
- Prepare and facilitate two lectures for a HUM 101 course, aligned with the course theme and highlighting that theme through their discipline lens
- Utilize available assessment, curriculum, and educational tools (onsite and online) to effectively engage the students in content, practice, and appropriate support to advance educational capacity and confidence

Eligibility Requirements:

- Full time or part time faculty status at College of Marin
- Demonstrated interest in basic skills and HUM 101 curriculum
- Demonstrated sensitivity to and an understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, ethnic, and accessibility-related backgrounds of community college students and the campus community.

Evaluation Criteria (Article 8.3.3):

The applicant(s) appears to have adequate experience and/or training to carry out the proposed appointment (0-5 points).

Number of years since last award to recipient: [5 years or never awarded = 5 points; 4 years = 4 points; 3 years = 3 points; 2 years = 2 points; 1 year = 1 point; less than 1 year = 0 points].
